

1906-026 Chancery Causes: Ardill Fulkerson vs. Minnie Fulkerson
Lee Co.

Noe, Rose, Fugate

CA-Divorce

T-Vices

To the Hon. H. A. W. Skeen, Judge of the Circuit Court for Lee County, Virginia.

Humbly complaining, your orator, Ardill Fulkerson, (colored) would respectfully represent and show unto your honor, that on the _____ day of October, 1903, at the age of forty five years, he was married in said County, to Minnie Noe, (colored,) aged seventeen years, with whom he lived and cohabited as husband and wife in said county until August 31st, 1905, when his said wife, without cause, abandoned him, and went to the house of a neighbor in said County where she has since resided and now resides. Your orator will further represent and show unto your honor, that his wife not only abandoned him as aforesaid, but since then has been unfaithful to him and has been guilty of adultery in said county in the neighborhood of Ewing, with some man who is unknown to your orator, and that on or about the 17th day of August, 1906, his said wife became the mother of a child, of which he was not the father, but whose father was, as he believes and alleges, a white man; that his said wife's acts of adultery were without his consent or connivance, and that they last lived and cohabited together as husband and wife in said county, of which county they are both residents, and have been for more than one year before the institution of this suit. And that there was born to him and his said wife, in wedlock, one child, now about two years of age named _____ and which child is in his care and custody.

The object of this bill, therefore, is to obtain ^{decree of} a divorce from the bonds of matrimony existing between your orator and his said wife, and decreeing to your orator the custody of his said child, the said defendant being an unfit person to have custody and control of said child. To this end he makes the said Minnie Fulkerson the party defendant to this bill and asks that she be required to answer the same/ but not under oath, that being waived, and that the relief above prayed for be granted your orator together with all such other and further relief as may be suited to his cause, and your orator will ever pray &c.
